JUNIOR RED CROSS OFFERS NOVELTY

PROMOTERS CLAIM THAT THOSE NAMED MAY NOT LIKE IT BUT YOU WILL

Besides two fast games, one of basketball and one baseball, something new in the way of entertainment is going to be offered those attending the Junior Red Cross affair at the Airdome Wednesday evening. At the last Junior Red Cross game everybody wanted score sheets but there were none. That defect will be remedied this time—and in the most novel fashion. These are something new that you don't want to miss, whatever happens. Interesting news about local people and all that sort of thing. You may find your own name there. The paragraph that mentions "Harry Grier's parties at the Airdome"—say, that's great! Wait till you read it! And the one about Lothrop-Davis, and about the Ford that the Tonopah Auto Supply Company sold last week! They may not like it but you will.

FRIENDS HEAR OF ALEC SMITH'S DEATH

NEWS LATE IN REACHING FRIENDS OF POPULAR FORMER RESIDENT

News of the death of Alec Smith, formerly mine foreman and later mine superintendent of the Tonopah Extension Mining company, reached A. C. Spiers, chief electrician of the West End Mining company, yesterday in a letter from Mrs. Smith. In the letter Mrs. Smith wrote of having telegraphed Mr. Spiers the news of the death on March 6th from Los Angeles where Mr. Smith died. On March 6th Mr. Spiers was out of Tonopah on business but returned the following day. No attempt, he said, was made to deliver the telegram to him until he called for it at the office yesterday.

Mr. Smith was with the Tonopah Extension company for a number of years and was very popular with the employees that were under his supervision. He was a man that was highly esteemed by all with whom he came in contact.

Mrs. Smith and her little daughter, Catherine, went with the body to Montreal where it was interred. They returned then to Lingwood, Canada. Gould P. O., Province of Quebec, where they are residing.

ARRAIGNED UNDER ESPIONAGE ACT

(By Associated Press.) KANSAS CITY, March 26.—Mrs. Rose Pastor Stokes, New York socialist, was arraigned here yesterday before a United States commissioner on a charge of violating the espionage act, and late yesterday was released on bond of $10,000, furnished by a surety company on application of her husband, J. G. Phelps Stokes, who came here from New York to arrange for his wife's defense. Mrs. Stokes waived preliminary examination and was ordered held to await the action of the federal grand jury which will meet April 22.

Charges against Mrs. Stokes are based upon her alleged statements in Kansas City and nearby towns and upon a signed communication sent to a newspaper here in which she declared that "no government which is for the profiteers can be for the people, and I am for the people."

PIKE SPEAKS TO SCHOOL STUDENTS

DISCUSSES SUBJECT OF "A NATION UNDER WARTIME ORDERS" AND ITS EFFECTS

W. J. Pike was introduced as the speaker of the day at the Tonopah high school this morning. He spoke on the subject of "A Nation Under Wartime Orders," and was listened to attentively by the students. He said in part:

A great deal has been said about the many different problems that the present war has brought out and the few words I have to say, I think could properly be put under the subject, "A Nation Under Wartime Orders."

That is just what we are, a nation under orders, and a large measure of our success in the present crisis depends upon our ability to carry out the orders and instructions given us by those whom we have placed in authority, those whom we have chosen to lead.

In time of peace we are a nation that does as it pleases. We have our different political and religious beliefs, the habits and customs of one part of the country differs from the habits and customs of another part of the country and we are content to have it this way.

I might compare a nation to an axe, the cutting or sharp edge of the axe is the army and navy, the weight behind the sharp edge is compared to the people, and the handle, the lever with which we operate the axe is compared to the officials who operate our government, one is of little use without the other.

An axe with no weight behind it is of very little value when there is work to be done. An army without the people backing it up is useless and helpless and that brings me to the point that I want to emphasize. Let us, by our strict obedience to orders, lend our weight to the handle of the axe that the axe may be applied where it will do the most good. We've got a good axe. The edge is very keen and sharp and we are putting even a sharper edge on it every time we enlist a man and obey the latest food order. The handle of the axe is made of mighty good material and when properly balanced with our weight makes a very effective tool.

RED CROSS DISPLAY AT HEADQUARTERS

INTERESTING WORK OF MRS. A. H. JONES ON EXHIBITION AT HEADQUARTERS

An unusually interesting display can be seen for the next few days in the window of the Red Cross headquarters. It is a complete layette made and presented by Mrs. A. H. Jones. The five aprons for six and eight year old girls are also the donation of this patriotic lady. The chapter has received from Beatty twenty-one layettes, complete except for a few sundries like diaper cloth, safety pins, soap sets, which it was impossible for the makers to purchase in Beatty. The layettes will be completed here. Anyone wishing to help defray the expense of doing so should communicate with the Red Cross headquarters. In view of the fact that there are only twelve families in Beatty the twenty-one layettes is considered a remarkable showing. Only seven booties and planellette jackets have been received.

PIONEER CITIZEN SOLVES PROBLEM

PIONEER MINER AND RANCHER DIES AT MT. ZION HOSPITAL SAN FRANCISCO

Word was received in Tonopah this morning of the death of Jack Gunn, the pioneer miner and rancher of Inyo county, at Mount Zion hospital, San Francisco. Mr. Gunn had been ailing for several months past due to general debility, and when the end came his wife and daughter, who survive him, were at his bedside. There are few old timers in Nevada, and especially the southern portion of the state, who were not acquainted with the deceased, and who will be grieved to learn of his passing. Mr. Gunn was one of the pioneer characters of the west, and whose charity was seen daily on every hand. It is said that Jack Gunn never turned a needy one away. He was associated with H. C. Brounger, Ben Edwards, W. J. Douglass and Dave Holland in the Santa Rosa mine at Darwin. His life-long friend, Bob Stewart, left Mina this morning for San Francisco to attend the funeral which will occur in that city tomorrow afternoon.

AMUSEMENTS

SPARKLING COMEDY-DRAMA AT THE BUTLER

Jane and Katherine Lee, better known as Wm. Fox's "Baby Grand" stars, and "Troublemakers," present what is undoubtedly the brightest film comedy-dramas before the public today.

Little Jane, irrepressible in her humor, and little Katherine, rising to great height in emotional scenes, are seen at the flood tide in "Troublemakers," and after you have seen them we feel sure you will tell your friends you have seen one of the very best photoplay comedy-dramas ever screened. Children will enjoy the many pranks of Jane and Katherine as "Troublemakers," and grown-ups cannot help but like it. You will remember that these two diminutive stars appeared at the Butler on a former occasion and played to capacity business in "The Two Little Lumps," and we have received many requests to play this picture a return engagement.

"Troublemakers," which is to be shown at the Butler tonight, was written especially for the Lee Kiddies, and they have every opportunity to again prove that as fun makers they have no equal on the screen. Come and see "Troublemakers" tonight. Come and have a good laugh—you have it coming to you—get it! Then tell us what you think of it. There will also be shown on today's program a Paramount-Bray cartoon comedy which are always first class.

Tomorrow, the popular star, Madge Kennedy, in "Our Little Wife," from Avery Hopwood's phenomenal stage success, Friday—Vaudeville—Friday.
